

EDENTON HISTORICAL COMMISSION
“PRESERVATION IN PROGRESS”
SATURDAY, OCTOBER 24, 2020

Admission: $25.00
Reservation Required, Call the Barker House: 252-482-7800

“East Gale Street Re-Development”

This outdoor walking program is offered at 10:00 am, 11:30am, 1:30pm and 3:00pm

- Program starts at N. Oakum and E. Gale Streets

Town representatives discuss the rejuvenation of this historic African American neighborhood. Sam Dixon, Town Council, will present in the morning. Elizabeth Allen Bryant, Director of Planning and Community Development, and Anne-Marie Knighton, Edenton Town Manager, will present the afternoon session.

Dawson Tyler, of Down East Preservation and Design, discusses his restoration work and answers questions about the house on the corner and other houses on this street. He will also present an overview of the Badham family and their building.

- Next, Walk down to 116 East Gale Street

Larry McLaughlin, of Old House Restoration, discusses his repairs to the Hannibal Badham Jr. Home. Larry will answer questions about the most elaborate house built by Hannibal Badham Sr.

- In conclusion, Cross the street to 119 East Gale Street

Kadesh AME Zion Church is the best-known landmark built by Hannibal Badham, Sr. Audrey Bond and members of the congregation discuss history of the church and provide an update of current restoration plans.

MUST BE REGISTERED

(MAXIMUM PARTICIPANTS: 15 EACH TIME SLOT)

Celebrating the 246th Anniversary of the “Edenton Tea Party”